Hotels

Built on the former site of a Grade II listed Boys Grammar School, the Leopold is Sheffield's only four-star boutique hotel. This historical property offers a quirky yet luxurious place to stay, situated centrally in Leopold Square offering an array of upmarket bars and eateries.

This imposing building has been sympathetically restored to retain its charming architectural character. Each of the hotel's 90 en-suite bedrooms is uniquely furnished, offering every modern amenity necessary for the discerning guest. Many rooms retain their original features, no two rooms are identical, and all rooms include essentials such as Smart Plasma TV, safe, fridge, hairdryers, Philippe Stark 'ghost' chairs and are all fully air conditioned. Taking great care of the individual needs of our guests is paramount and our friendly staff are professional and efficient.

Bedroom Types: -

Leopold Double, Deluxe King and Mezzanine Suite

Twin bedded rooms and accessible rooms are available upon request

Having originally been designed as a Grammar School and latterly the city's Central Technical School, the Leopold reflects its past with the many images and photographs that have been kindly donated from its past pupils. Touches of memorabilia keep the hotel alive with tales of schoolboy antics and life as it used to be. Visitors from all over the globe are encouraged to leave their comments in the ever-expanding Guest Book, along with the many famous celebrities' who make the Leopold their favourite home-from-home. A hotel like no other.
